

Our services are available to all clubs.

- We can assist in the raising of club revenues via your website exposure.
- The greatest opportunities exist with clubs which permit play by other club members in club comps and play by social golfers.
- However all clubs, private included gain increased exposure.

Raising Club Sponsorship

- Our listing of website which carry results will be hit regularly by all golfers.
- Club Diaries has been going for over 10 years and our move to a national system has been asked for many times.
- All businesses both local and national will benefit.

Club Diaries Golf Events

- All golf games designed by this website are free for any club to use provided the game names are not changed.
- None of our games will interfere with any club golf competitions.
- Some are stand alone events, run on separate days at various courses and some will piggy back on current club events.
- The piggy back events will increase support for club events and in doing so increase turnover and revenue for participating clubs.
